

Model Question

First Terminal Examination-2081

Subject: Our English

Time: 2hrs

F.M :50

Class: 7

P.M : 20

1) Read the following text and do the following activities:

A rich man was walking through his springtime garden and, there he found a small bird caught in a net. He took it in his hand and, to his surprise, the small bird spoke 'set me free. There is nothing I love more than my freedom. 'Why should I set you free?' Asked the rich man." I am too small to eat. My feathers are grey. I am not pretty. I do not sing please set me free." What will you give me in return for your freedom?' I will give you three pieces of advice. I will listen to your advice. Then I will decide whether to give you your freedom.' First, do not wish for what you cannot have. Second, do not try to change what has already happened. Third, do not believe in what is impossible. ' Wise words indeed!' Said the rich man. He opened his hand, and the small bird flew upto the branch of tree overhead. The rich man heard the small bird laughing. Small bird, why do you laugh? Are you laughing at me, 'yes, what you do not know is that inside me, I have a diamond the size of chicken's egg.'

A. Answer the following questions:5*1=5

1. Why did the bird want to be free?
2. What were the advices of bird?
3. Where did the man catch the small bird?
4. Was there a diamond inside the body of bird?
5. Did the bird escape from the man's hand?

2) Read the following text and do the activities:

Jyoti Girls Hostel

Interview for Accommodation

Interviews for Girls Hostel applicants have been scheduled as below.

March 5th to March 7th 2021

Interview time of individual candidates will be on a first come first served basis between 10:30am to 5:00pm. Please bring the following original documents at the time of interview:

- a. Birth registration certificate.
- b. Mark sheets and certificates of the previous class.
- c. Proof of admission at Jyoti Secondary School.

If you need any further help, please contact the school administration team.

A. Write True or False for the following statement.5*1=5

- i. The interview is for girls hostel applicants.
- ii. Applicants should appear in interview on first come first served basis.
- iii. Birth registration is not essential for the interview.
- iv. We have to contact to the hostel warden if we need further help.
- v. The interview will held on 5th march only.

3. Read the passage and do the following activities:

Henry Ford was the first person to build cars which were cheap, strong and fast. He was able to sell millions of cars because he mass produced them, i.e. he made great many cars of exactly the same type. Ford's father hoped that his son would become a farmer, but the young man did not like the idea and he went to Detroit where he worked as a machine. By the age of 29, in 1892, he had built his first car. However the first mass-produced car in the world. The famous model J did not appear until 1908 five years after Ford had started his great Motor company. This car proved to be so popular that it remained unchanged for twenty years. Since Ford's time, mass-production methods have become common in industry and have reduced the price of many articles which would otherwise be very expensive.

A. Fill in the gaps using appropriate words.5*1=5

- i. Henry Ford was Years old when he first built his car.
- ii. He started his great.....in 1903.
- iii. He went to to become a machine.
- iv. Henry's father desired him to bebut he didn't like the idea.
- v. Is the famous model among the produced car.

4. Read the following letter and do the activities that follow:

20/440 Pepsikola
Kathmandu, Nepal
15th March, 2013

The Editor,
The Himalayan Times,
Kathmandu, Nepal
Sir,

Our Municipality wants to waking up; and, private appeals to their officers I have had no effect, perhaps a little publicity will do no harm. For, nearly one year jadibuti sinamangal road has been almost impassable. The surface is badly broken up by the heavy rains and over flow of heavy very little room in the middle. If you are a driver, you can't imagine the dangerous situation during dark night. It is scandalous that we should be inconvenienced in this way for months, and I hope the public will bring pressure to bear on those responsible so that road may be put in through repair without further delay.

Yours faithfully,
Hemanta Parajuli

A. Write answer the following questions 5*1=5

- Who sent the letter?
- Is the road passable?
- List any two defects of road?
- What may happen if the authority delays to repair the road?
- What leaves very little space in the middle of the road?

B. Match the words in column A with the column B. 5*1=5

A	B
i. Municipality	in addition
ii. Impassable	causing effect
iii. Harm	local government
iv. Scandalous	impossible to travel along or over
v. Further	disgracefully bad

5. Punctuate the following paragraph 10*0.5=5

her husband became very angry and called out i only wish the banana was hanging to your nose the banana hopped from the plate and hung on to his wife's nose and so the second wish was granted

6. Develop a readable story using the following outlines.

Suggest a suitable title and a moral too : 5

A bee falls into a tank- a dove flies fast- drops a large leaf into the water- the bee climbs on it- flies away- a hunter takes aim at the dove- the bee stings him- the dove is saved.

7. Write an essay on 'The teacher you like most.' 10

8. Rewrite the given sentences as indicated in the brackets.

0.5*5=2.5

- They hardly play football,? (Supply a correct tag)
- Look! Someone(cross) the road.(write the correct form of verb)
- I have some money. (change into negative)

- People grow rice in Terai. (Change into Passive)
- Bharat said," I am tired today." (change into indirect speech)

9. Choose and copy the best answer from the brackets to complete the text. 0.5*5=2.5

Once there lived.....(a,an,the) cruel lion in a forest. The lion used to kill the animals recklessly. The animals were very worried.... (as, because, because of) his ruthless behavior. One day, they (hold, held, holding) a meeting with the lion and made a compromise with him to send one animal a day in turn. The lion agreed it happily at one. In turn, when an old but clever hare's turn came, he asked himself if he..... (can, could, may) bring out any solution to this problem. He made a plan to trick the lion. So, he went late to the lion's den. The lion said, " why are you late?" in response, he have told the lion that he met a new lion.... (in, on, at) the way.

 The End *****

Model Question

Second Terminal Examination 2081

Subject: Our English

Time :2hrs

F.M : 50

Class: 7

P.M :20

Attempt all the questions.

1. Read the passage and do the activities given below:

The Circus Elephant

What are they thinking?

The circus elephants,

As they tramp around the ring each night?

Do they wish that they

Were far away

In the forest's leafy light?

Where they'd roam at will

And could eat their fill

Far from human sight.

As the gentle giants

Perform their tricks

The children stare with delight

But is it far?

Should they be there

Is keeping them captive right?

A. Are the following statements true or false? 5*1=5

- The circus elephant walks around the ring each night.
- They want to stay in the forest.
- They are free at the circus.
- The children are happy to see the elephant's tricks.
- The circus elephant should be set free

2) Read the following text and do the activities given below:

Last year, three friends of mine decided to spend a holiday in the mountains. They set off by car early in the morning. By the late afternoon they had almost reached the village where they were going to stay. They had a quick cup of tea at the way side café. They set off again along the window road that led to the mountains. They had a map with them. According to the map, the village they were going to stay in was only about fifteen miles away.

It got dark and it began to rain too. This made it more difficult to see the road clearly. After they had driven about fifteen miles, there was still no sign of the village. Obviously, the map they had was not good one.

They went on for another five miles and the car suddenly stopped. At first, my friend thought that they had run out of petrol but, on examination, they found that this was not the problem. Something else was wrong with the car. Since they could not start it again, they decided to spend the night in the car. They had very little food with them and there was not much room for three people.

Early in the morning, a car came along the road. They stopped the driver and asked him where the village was. He told them that it was just on the other side of the hill. They tired their car to his car and he pulled them to the top of the hill. After that their car ran all the way downhill to the village. They found the hotel and had a good breakfast. Of course, if they had walked up the hill the night before, they would not have had to spend an uncomfortable night in the car.

A. Answer the following questions. 5*1=5

- Where were the three friends going to spend their holiday?
- Why was it difficult to see the road?
- How long did they driver until the car stopped after tea?
- What did they ask the driver of the the passing car?
- What did the driver tell them?

3. Read the following passage and do the activities that follow.

We have many festivals on our country. Dashain is our greatest festival. It is a Hindu festival. It begins in the month of Ashwin and lasts for ten days. The first nine days are called Navaratri (Nine Nights). On these days, people worship Durga, the Goddess of Power. They worship her image at home or in temples. The tenth day is called Vijaya Dashami or Tika. It commemorates the victory of Durga over Mahisasur, the demon. This signifies the triumph of good over evil. On this day, people go to their superior and seek blessings. During Dashain, people spend their time in fasting and merrymaking. They put on fine clothes and eat rich foods. Many people like to eat meat. They kill birds and animals. The rich people have a happy time because they can spend a lot of money. The poor people are not so happy. They cannot buy enough clothes and food.

A. Rearrange the following sentences in the correct order.

5*1=5

- The poor people are not so happy.
- The tenth day is called VijayaDashami or Tika.
- The first nine days are called Navaratri.
- They put on fine clothes and eat rich food.
- Dashain is a Hindu festival.

4) Read the passage below and do the activities that follow. 10

Guru Purnima is a ritual or a festival of the Hindus, Jains and the Buddhists which is celebrated as a dedication, showing respect and gratitude to the teachers / Gurus who may be spiritual, academic or cultural. The Gurus or the teachers have a special place in the hearts of various religions like the Jains, Buddhist's and especially the Hindus. Teachers are compared with the guardians and also worshipped like Gods. The festival holds prodigious importance which is meant to worship and honor Guru. Guru Purnima day gives us an opportunity to bestow and honor Guru, teachers and mentors who show us the right path to lead our life successfully and steadily. We, as students respect, regard and reverence our teachers and Gurus who always provide a helping hand and support us at crucial instances.

It is a festival that is celebrated in the memory of the great sage Maharshi Veda. This great saint edited the four vedas. He also wrote the eighteen Puranas, Mahabharata and the Srimad Bhagawat Geeta. Dattatreya(Datta Guru) of the mythology, considered as the Guru of Guru is known to the Shishya (student) of MaharshiVyasa and the disciples worship their respective spiritual Gurudevs.

This day is considered as a good day by the people especially to the farmers as wait for heavy showers for their crops to grow. The four month periods (Chaturmas) starts from this day and the spiritual seekers start intensifying their Shadhanas (Practice) this day. In the history, It has been witnessed that the spiritual Gurus with their disciples, used to sit under a tree and study the Brahma Sutras composed by Vyasa.

A. Answer these questions.

- How is Guru Purnima celebrated?
- Who are the teachers compared with?
- What does the day of Guru Purnima give us?
- Why do students always respect and regard their Gurus?
- Why do farmers consider this day as a good day?

B. Match the words in column 'A' with their meaning in column 'B' 5*1=5

- | A | B |
|-----------------|--------------|
| i. devotees | a. vital |
| ii. instances | b. followers |
| iii. prodigious | c. examples |
| iv. crucial | d. enormous |
| v. dedication | e. devotion |

5) Punctuate the following paragraph 5*1=5

a lot of people around the world are getting fat because they eat too much junk food junk food is food that has a lot of calories but not many nutrients utrients are things that your body needs such as vitamin minerals? And fiber

6) Develop a readable story using the guidelines below: give a suitable title also: 5

An old farmer.....lazy sons.....old man dying.....calls the sons.....tells them treasures hidden in the fields.....dies before spotting the place...the sons dig the ground.....no treasure.....plant crops.....grow more crops.....realize truth.....moral.

7) Write an essay on 'Importance of discipline in students life.' 10

8) A.Rewrite the given sentences as indicated in the brackets.5*0.5=2.5

- He goes to Pokhara (change into past tense)
- I am fine.....? (Tag Question)
- He said to me, I am hungry. (into indirect speech)
- Ram killed Ravan. (into passive)
- Ram plays footbal. (into negative)

B. Choose and copy the best answer from the brackets. 5*0.5=2.5

- Ram is.....tallest boy in our class. (a/an/the)
- What do you have....your pocket. (in/on/at)
- If I work hard Iget good results. (will/would/will have)
- She is wearing a white coat and a stethoscope. So, she..... be a doctor or a nurse. (may/will/must)
- He did not present.....he was sick. (because/but/and)

The End

Model Question

Third Terminal Examination-2081

Subject: Our English

Time :2hrs

F.M : 50

Class: 7

P.M :20

Attempt all the questions.

1.Read the following poem and do the activities:

The Echoing Green

The sun does arise,
And make happy the skies.
The merry bells ring
To welcome the spring.
The sky-lark and thrush.
The birds of the bush,
Sing louder around,
To the bells' cheerful sound.
While our sports shall be seen
On the Echoing Green.

Old John, with white hair
Does laugh away care,
Sitting under the oak.
They laugh at our play,
And soon they all say.
'Such, such were the joys.
When we all girls and boys,
In our youth-time were seen,
On the Echoing Green.'
Till the little ones weary
No more can be merry
The sun does descend,
And our sports have an end:
Round the laps of their mothers,
Many sisters and brothers,
Like birds in their nest,
Are ready for rest;
And sport no more seen,
On the darker Green.

William Blake

A. Match the words with their meaning.5*1=5

- | | |
|------------|----------------------|
| a. oak | i. happy |
| b. merry | ii. to rise |
| c. folk | iii. a kind of tree |
| d. arise | iv. to go down |
| e. descend | v. people in general |

2.Read the following text and do the activities given below:

A Terrifying Night

Shortly after the war, my brother and I were invited to spend a few day's holiday with an uncle. He had just returned from abroad. He had returned a cottage in the country, although he rarely spent much time there. We understood the reason for this after our arrival: the cottage had no comfortable furniture in it, many of the windows were broken and the roof leaked, making the whole house damp.

On our first evening, we sat around the fire after supper listening to the stories which our uncle had to tell of his many adventures in distant countries. I was so tired after the long train journey that I would have preferred to go to bed; but I could not bear to miss any of my uncle's exciting tales.

A. Rearrange the following sentences in the correct order.5*1=5

- He had just returned from abroad.
- I were invited to spend a few days' holiday with an uncle.
- He had rented a cottage in the country, although he rarely spent much time there.
- I was so tired after the long train journey.
- We sat around the fire after supper listening to the stories which our uncle had to tell of his many adventures in distant countries.

3. Read the following letter and answer the following questions:

The start of the Adventure

Kathmandu
14th feb, 2018

The Headmaster,
Shakti High School

Dear Sir,

We are very happy to tell you that Shanti and Shambhu have won our 'English in Action' competition for your school. The other prize winner is Jyoti. As you know, the two students who took part from your school will help to make a film. The film is about a Nepali family and friends who fly across Nepal in a hot air balloon.

The other actors and the film crew are looking forward to working with your students. They should arrive at our studies on February 28.

Yours sincerely,
Ram Pd Dhakal
(Ram Pd Dhakal)
Managing Director

A. Answer the following questions. 5*1=5

- When was the letter written?
- Whom is the letter sent to?
- What is the designation (post) of Ram Prasad Dhakal?
- What is the film about?
- When should they arrive the studio?

4. Read the text carefully and the given activities that follow.

It is estimated that the total population of Rautes in Nepal is about 180, roughly 52 families. The Karnali Province of Nepal remains their only Sanctuary. There is no documented history of the Rautes. But one common ground is that once they fled from the state they never return and established a different pattern of life in the jungle. To eke out their living they mastered crafting of wooden products, learn to hunt monkeys and adopted to forest life. Only the Mukhiyas of the Rautes on the behalf of their tribe, talks to traditional knowledge of living in a community. The heredity of the Rautes is categorized into three types as Kalyaal, Raskoti and Sammal. Their maintenance of the nomadic culture in a rapidly globalizing world is commendable. Most often the male members get involved in making wooden utensils, hunting monkeys trading their products in their market. Women in the Raute community bear the major responsibility in the household chores. They have indigenous know how on spring water sources. Since, it is a part of their job to search for medicinal herbs, fire wood and vegetables in the jungle.

A. Find the words from the text which are similar meaning to the following.

5*1=5

- refugee
- struggle
- convey
- obligation
- praise

B. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements 5*1=5

- Rautes live in the far-western part of Nepal.
- One of the means of their survival is wood craft.
- The total population of Rautes in Nepal is almost 100.
- The Mukhiya of the Rautes talk to outsiders about their tradition.

e. Women in the Raute community bear the major responsibility in the household chores.

5. Punctuate the following text 10*0.5=5

my mothers name is nita sharma she lives in canada. she is 36 years old. She always buys me wonderful gifts at my birthday she is my best friend as well.

6. Develop a readable story with the help of the following outlines. 5

A farmer in a village.... has a hen..... golden eggs..... husband rich tells his wife kill hen get all golden eggs.... wife denies... but he kills.... no egg..... Moral!

7. Write a letter to a foreign friend telling him/her about your school.

10

8. Choose the best answer to complete the sentences 5*0.5=2.5

- Ram plays..... guitar. (a, an, the)
- My father married..... 2005 AD. (in, at, on)
- I and he in the same grade. (is, am, are)
- Mt. Everest is the mountain in the world. (high, higher, highest)
- He ate rice..... his hunger. (because, therefore, because of)

9. Change the following sentences as indicated in the brackets. 5*0.5=2.5

- They write letters. (Into Passive Voice)
- The teacher said, "The earth moves around the sun." (Indirect Speech)
- She went to school. (Negative)
- I am a student,? (Question Tag)
- My brother plays football. (Simple Future Tense)

The End

Model Question
Annual Examination

Subject: Our English Time: 2hrs F.M :50
Class: 7 P.M : 20

1) Read the following text and do the following activities:

It was my birthday last Thursday and I decided to celebrate it by inviting a few friends out to supper. I chose a restaurant in a quiet part of town. It is one of my favourite restaurants because the food is good and the waiters are friendly. It is hardly ever crowded because few people know about it. So, it is not usually necessary to book a table. In any case, Thursday is not a busy evening as a rule.

When we entered the restaurant, I was surprised to find it completely full. I looked around- but not a single table was free. One of the waiter recognized me. He came across and explained the situation. A party of tourists came in about half an hour ago, he said. "It was like an invasion! Suddenly the place was full! We can hardly manage!"

The waiter then pointed to a table in the corner. "The people there are about to leave," he said, just hold on and you'll find a place there. He was right. Fifteen minutes later, the people at the corner table paid their bill, got up and left. I led my friends across and we all sat down.

A) Write True or False.

[5]

- a. The restaurant was full that evening.
- b. The restaurant is one of the speaker's adored place because of food and waiters are friendly.
- c. Speaker and his friends are going to have wedding party.
- d. They got a table and sat down for the party.
- e. The waiter did not point a table for them.

2) Read the following text and do the following task:

Elephants are the largest land animals on Earth, and they are one of the most unique-looking animals too. They have long noses, or trunks; large floppy ears; and wide, thick legs. There is no other animals with a similar physical structure.

There are two species of elephants: the Asian elephants and the African ones. They live on separate continents and have many unique features too.

African elephants live in sun-Saharan African and the rainforest of central and West Africa. Asian elephants live in Nepal, India and Southeast Asia in scrub forest and rainforests.

Among these two, African elephants are larger and grow taller to about 13ft. and weigh about 6350kg. Asian elephants are just a little smaller and grow up to 8.9ft. tall and weigh about 4990kg. The African elephants live up to 70 years while Asian ones live up to 60 years.

Both African male and female elephants have large tusks and two fingers on the end of their trunks to help them pick up items. Asian elephants have a single finger on the end of their trunks. Typically, only male Asian elephants will grow large tusks. The female and few males have much smaller tusks called tushes that much smaller tusks called tushes that do not always grow outside the mouth.

A. Fill in the blanks with suitable words from the above text. 5*1=5

- i.are consider as the largest land mammals on earth.
- ii. There are two species of elephants.....and the African ones.
- iii. There is no other animals with a similar..... body structure.
- iv. Both male and female Elephants have large tusks.
- v. live up to seventy years.

3. Read the following notice and do the activities given below:

Notice

This is to notify to all valued general and life members of NELTA that the scheduled program of its 20th international conference have been postponed due to some unforeseen circumstances. The detail information about the conference with new schedule of program will be made available at each branch office of NELTA across the kingdom within two weeks.

NELTA would like to apologize for the inconvenience caused by this recent decision of the central executive committee.

Nepal English Language Teacher's Association (NELTA)
Central Executive Committee
ChundeviMarga, Kathmandu

A. Answer the following questions: 5*1=5

- i. What is the notice about?
- ii. What are two types of members of NELTA?
- iii. Why has NELTA postponed the scheduled program?
- iv. What does NELTA stand for?
- v. Who has made this decision?

4. Read the following book review and do the activities that follow.

MunaMadan is a very famous book of Nepali literature which is written by Laxmi Prasad Devkota. It is a story book written in poetic form. The words and the language of this book are very attractive. The small book tells us a story about Muna and Madan. Madan and Muna are husband and wife. Madan had an old mother. They were passing miserable life because of their poverty. So, Madan decides to go to Lasha to earn money. But his wife and mother request him to stay at home. Madan finally decides to go to with his friends. He reaches Lasha with a great difficulty and earns a lot of money. Then he decides to return his home. On the way, he becomes ill and his friends leave him alone. But a Tibetan meets him and takes care of him. Madan recovers and comes back to his home. His mother and wife had very difficult time at home. Somebody gives them message that faint and die. When Madan arrives at home, he finds his mother and wife dead. In this way, the book has a tragic end.

This book tells us that the desire of a lot of money adds worries rather than happiness. This book also tells us that there is only one cast in the world. After reading the book, we know that a man becomes superior not because of cast but because of deeds. The story is popular everywhere. So, this book is translated into various languages. This book is popular everywhere. So, this book is the best among other Devkota's many books. So, once Devkota said, "Burn my all books except MunaMadan." No one gets tired of reading this book.

A. Answer the following questions: 5*1=5

- i. Why was Madan's family passing miserable life?
- ii. Where does Madan go to earn money?
- iii. Who is the author of MunaMadan?
- iv. What happens to Madan while returning home?
- v. What does the book tell the story about?

B. Match the words in column A with their meanings in column B. 5*1=5

Column A	Column B
a. renowned	finally
b. tiny	dreadful
c. tragic	famous
d. eventually	get
e. gain	small

5) Punctuate the following sentences 10*0.5=5

elephants are the largest land mammals on earth and they are one of the most unique-looking animals too. They have long noses or trunks large floppy ears and wide thick legs

6) Write a paragraph on the basis of the given clues. 1*5=5

Bicycle

Means of transportation – cheap – kinds: ordinary, sports, mountain – structure – functions of different parts – importance

7) Write an essay on "Our Country." 10

8) Grammar

A. Reproduce the following sentences as indicated in brackets.

5*0.5=2.5

- i. City dwellers rarely have any leisure.....?(supply the correct tag)
 - ii. My dog doesn't eat flesh. (Into affirmative)
 - iii. Rita goes to the cinema once a week. (Into 'how often' question)
 - iv. I asked him, "What are you doing?" (Into indirect speech)
 - v. I have been given this book by my sister. (Into active voice)
- B. Choose and copy the best answer. 5*0.5=2.5
- i. He is unique boy. (a, an, the)
 - ii. India got freedom 1947. (on, in, at)
 - iii. If I were a bird, I Fly in the sky. (will, can, would)
 - iv. We cancelled the match..... snowing. (because, because of, although)
 - v. Ram is than Hari. (tall, taller, tallest)

 The End *****